Weekly Summary Report

1. Regularly scheduled offerings of the following courses were cancelled during the past week because of insufficient enrollments: Advanced Counterespionage (ACE), Anti-Communist Operations (ACO) and Escape and Evasion (EES). Total enrollments for these courses were four, three and one, respectively, and it is obviously unfair to ask the high-level guest instructors to sacrifice time from their principal duties to instruct so few students. It is anticipated that it will become necessary to cancel the Air Operations Course regularly scheduled for 30 August for the same reason since only one student was enrolled by 13 August, the final registration date.

The training program has been specially designed to meet the needs of this individual's specific assignment and consists primarily of a brief tradecraft refresher and selected material relating to denied-area operations.
